DIES FROM POISONING

Horace Osborne, 15 years of age,

son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Osborne, who live in the Terry community, Northeast of Elba, died at the family home Tuesday, April

19th. He had been ill only one day and was said to have been suffering from food poisoning.

It was also stated that other members of the family were ill, but none of them dangerously. An investigation was made to determine the source of the poison.

Besides his parents, Horace is survived by five brothers: J. C.

Howard, Ralph, Nelson and James

Osborne. Funeral and burial occurred at Pleasant Ridge, Rev.

Tup Plant conducted the services.

Elba Funeral Home had charge of arrangements.

Rev. D. F. Ellison, agent for

Superannuate Homes and Endowment of the Alabama Methodist

Conference, was a visitor to Elba

last Sunday and filled the pulpit

at the Methodist Church at the evening service. He made a very touching appeal for the superannuated ministers. Mr. Ellison was pastor of the Elba church thirty-six years ago.

Miss Mary Annie Donaldson and

Miss Elzie Sellers spent the weekend in Auburn, guests of Miss

Myrtle Donaldson.

Mrs. Baxter Bryan, Mrs. Gordon

Matis, Mrs. John Wilkerson and

Miss Sallie Collier were visitors to Montgomery Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Ada Shealy and Miss Sara

Shealy of McKenzie spent the week-end at their home here. They were accompanied by Mrs. Reynolds

Smart and son, Thomas, and Mrs.

Paul Hattaway, of Brundidge.

Sparks Answers
Campaign Falsehoods

There has recently appeared in certain newspapers, and otherwise, paid political advertisements by Dixon South Alabama Campaign Committee which contain the following deceitful, treacherous, and malicious falsehoods:

FALSEHOOD NO. 1

The Legislature wanted to stop mortgage foreclosures before the big boys owned most of the farms in Alabama.

THE TRUTH

The Act alluded to did not attempt to prevent or regulate mortgage foreclosures, but dealt solely with lawsuits to recover deficiency judgments. (See a copy of the bill H. R. 21, found on page 631 of the 1933 House Journal.)

FALSEHOOD NO. 2

The Deficiency Judgment bill was introduced and passed in the 1933 Legislature.

THE TRUTH

The bill was adversely by the Senate Judiciary Committee and the Senate declined to remove it from the adverse calendar, so the bill never passed. (See the 1933 Senate Journal, page 642.)

FALSEHOOD NO. 3

By this bill a farmer could get a fair appraisal of his land in a Court of Equity and receive credit for every dime he had paid on his place.

THE TRUTH

The provisions of the bill were expressly limited to Law Courts and not Courts of Equity, and the purpose of the bill was to limit the recovery of deficiency judgments to the difference between the reasonable market value of the mortgaged property and the amount of the mortgage debt.

FALSEHOOD NO. 4

The passing of the bill saved 75 per cent of the farmers of Alabama.

THE TRUTH

It did not save a single farmer of Alabama for two reasons: First, the bill was never passed, and second, its passage could not have saved a single farmer of Alabama because it did not even attempt to prevent or regulate mortgage foreclosures.

"Ye shall know them by their works. Do men gather grapes of thorns or figs of thistles?"—Matt. 7:16.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Mitchell, Sr., Miss Louise Mitchell and Phil Mitchell of Montgomery spent Sunday in Elba, guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Farris.

Mrs. Baxter Bryan, Mrs. Gordon Matis, Mrs. John Wilkerson and Miss Sallie Collier were visitors to Montgomery Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Ada Shealy and Miss Sara Shealy of McKenzie spent the week-end at their home here. They were accompanied by Mrs. Reynolds Smart and son, Thomas, and Mrs. Paul Hattaway, of Brundidge.

Mrs. Levy Morrow, who has been undergoing treatment in Edge hospital in Troy, returned to her home last Thursday. Friends trust that she may soon be fully recovered.

No rain has fallen on the morning of March 12 for fifty-one years in London.

The following program was given by members of the club: The Story of The Blue Danube Waltz—Martha Edmondson. Piano Solo—Eloise Hughes. Music in the Land of Cotton—Betty Ann Farris. Reading—Betty Ann Farris. Guessing Game—Katherine Mullins. Winner, Martha Edmondson. A delightful refreshment course was served by Mrs. L. P. Mullins. Martha Mullins and Maggie Dean Clark, after which games were played on the lawn.—REPORTER.

After interesting games were played, the children enjoyed an Easter egg hunt. The prize, an Easter basket with rabbit and eggs, was won by Mary Ann Stephens, who found the golden egg. Favors presented to the guests were little Easter chicks.

The little guests, upon returning from the hunt, were ushered into the dining room, where the table was prettily decorated and centered with the birthday cake, which was embossed with lovely pink and yellow roses with green foliage, and held five pink candles. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. O. Dowling and Mrs. Rhodora Gill, served cake and ice cream to the following: Celia English, Patsy Louis Mullins, Ella Elizabeth Wilkerson, Mary Dewell Dowling, Ann Gill, Mary Ann Stephens, Betty Vaughan, Glen Vaughan, Carlton Whitman, Budde Whitman, Albert Mifflord Collier, Jimmie Rowell, Owen Ziglar, Sam Young.

STUDY CLUB ENTERTAINS AT LOVELY DINNER PARTY

The outstanding social feature of the Elba Study Club's program for the year was the lovely dinner at Talley's Cafe Thursday evening, April 21st.

The club colors, pink and green, were attractively carried out in the decorations, with baskets of pink roses, the club flower, forming the floral setting.

The table where the delicious three-course dinner was served to the twenty members was beautifully appointed, with the central decoration being a low bowl of pink roses placed on a mirror plique about which pink candles burned in crystal candlesticks. Dainty place cards marked each guest's place.

Mrs. Phil Crigler, Mrs. H. Jeter and Mrs. Dana Perdue were in charge of arrangements, and of the following program of clever impersonations of famous women, with Mrs. Crigler serving as master of ceremonies:

"Ma" Ferguson by Mrs. R. L. Cooper; Mrs. Hattie Caraway, Mrs. J. O. English; Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen, Rhodie, Mrs. J. M. Garrett; Queen Mary, Mrs. W. H. Coston; Margaret Mitchell, Mrs. Lamar Ralner; Helen Keller, Mrs. J. M. Rowe; Anne Lindbergh, Mrs. H. Jeter; Kate Smith, Mrs. F. A. Farris; Eleanor Roosevelt, Mrs. J. F. Brunson.

Mary Pickford, Miss Eunora Farris; Lady Astor, Mrs. W. C. Braxwell; Mae West, Miss Mabel Brunson; Duchess of Windsor, Mrs. W. M. Ringdorf; Alcee Semple McPherson, Mrs. L. L. Farris; Dixie Bob Graves, Mrs. Dana Perdue; Dorothy Dix, Mrs. A. C. Farris; Tallulah Bankhead, Mrs. Kay Farris, and Frances Perkins, Miss Zelle Rowe.

Other features of the program were a piano duet by Mrs. R. L. Cooper and Mrs. W. M. Ringdorf; a musical contest directed by Mrs. Dana Perdue with music by Mrs. Phil Crigler, in which Mrs. J. O. English and Mrs. Kay Farris tied as winners of the prize; and a group of popular songs by the entire group. A description of the "perky" affair made from adjacent tables supplied by each member was given by Mrs. H. Jeter and proved quite amusing.

Mrs. F. H. Murphree was a guest of the club, representing Mrs. Lillian Ringdorf, who was absent from the city.

MR. AND MRS. ENGLISH ENTERTAIN FOR NIECES—

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. English entertained at a delightful dinner in their home on Rushing Street on Thursday, April 21st, honoring their nieces, Mrs. Ed Enzor of Alexandria, Virginia, and Miss Lucile Loflin of Washington, D. C.

A collection of lovely roses was used in decorations about the home.

The attractively appointed table where the course dinner was served had covers laid for the following guests: Mrs. Ed Enzor, Miss Lucile Loflin, the honorees; Ed Enzor, Jr., of Alexandria, Va., Mrs. Mollie Loflin of Enterprise, Mr. and Mrs. John Wiley English, Phil English, Carolyn English, Mr. and Mrs. Lee English and little son, Burt, Neil English, Mrs. Jennie English, Mr. and Mrs. Harold English and children, Celia and Harold, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. J. O. English, hosts.

The Music Appreciation Club elects new officers—

It's A New Day:-

Henry B. Steagall, with a quarter of a century spent in Congress, is of a past day and generation. The Cotton South is now facing a situation never known before and its salvation must be worked out by those of this day and generation.

Thoroughly capable to help solve this new day's problems is J. HUBERT FARMER. With legal training and legislative experience, including 17 years active practice of law, a term in the State Senate and five years as circuit solicitor, he is specially qualified as a law-maker.

He is awake to the needs of this District and is pledged to represent the people and give them the wholehearted attention. After 24 years, this District needs a change in Congressmen!
